Headline:
Fine and hot, increasing risk of thunderstorms later Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
A fine and dry evening with plenty of sunny spells, followed by a clear night with light winds. Areas of mist or isolated fog patches may develop in rural locations around dawn. A mild night, particularly so in urban areas. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Wednesday:
Dry with light winds and plenty of sunshine, this becoming hazy. Very warm or hot, though cooler in coastal areas. Thundery showers with hail and gusty winds pushing north later. Maximum temperature 30 deg C (86 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Bands of heavy thundery showers pushing north, with hail and gusty winds possible. These alternating with dry and perhaps occasionally sunny periods through the next few days.
